Dear Mr. Cole:

I wish to thank you very much for your letter of 15 April inviting me to speak at the annual meeting of the American Political Science Association on 11 September.

As I wrote Professor Redford, it is sincerely regretted that I will be unable to attend as I am planning to be out of the country at that time. However, your courtesy in asking me to join you on this particular occasion is indeed appreciated and I would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in your annual meeting.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Professor Emmette S. Redford, the Chairman of the 1959 Program Committee of the American Political Science Association, has extended to you an invitation to make a major address at our annual meeting on the evening of September 11. The membership will be honored, and I shall be greatly pleased, if you can accept this invitation. I know that I am expressing the feelings of my colleagues in hoping that your commitments will permit you to honor us at our annual meeting.

With kind personal regards,

I am,

Respectfully yours,

Taylor Cole
